Cross-Channel Lunch

Saturday 22nd June 2013

Following many requests we have arranged a club lunch in a delightful chateau restaurant near Calais recommended to us by Jo Willacy, Eurotunnel's Commercial Director.

The venue is Chateau de Cocove – www.chateaucocove.com – leave at Exit 2 of the A26, head NE crossing the adjacent D943, and turn left almost immediately thereafter onto the D226; the chateau is a few hundred yards on the left, along a winding gravel drive through trees and a mini parkland setting.

The planned timetable is:

|-------|---|
| 9.30 | Meet at Folkestone Terminal |
| 10.20 | Catch shuttle |
| c1.00 | (local time) Arrive at Chateau for aperitif & canapés |
| 1.30 | Sit down for meal |
| 3.00 | Coffee |
| 3.30 | Depart |
| 4.20 | Shuttle or possible option: |
| 4.30 | MyFerryLink – Superferry Rodin sailing |
| c4.00 | (local time) Shuttle arrives Folkestone |
| c5.00 | Rodin arrives Dover |

The menu is

Kir white wine with canapés

Pike soufflé with crustacéans sauce

or

Homemade duck liver

Breast of Duck cooked with Orange

or

Cod cooked at La Dieppoise

Warm Crusty cake of Chocolate

or

Vanilla Crème Brûlée

2 glasses of wine

Mineral water

coffee

Booking

I very much hope you can join us. There are, however, two essential steps you must take:

1. Book and pay the £35pp for your meal by either clicking here to email us together with your credit card details, or if you prefer ring our Reception at The Grand on 01 303 222 222 with your credit card details to hand.
2. Book your Eurotunnel crossing.

And a further point to bear in mind: diesel is about 20% cheaper in France.
