Memorable moments...

Trudi says: "The most poignant part of the day was having our terminally ill daughter at the wedding. We were unsure if she was going to be able to come as we were in hospital with her until the day before and she was not in a good way when we left. Seeing her at the church as I pulled up in the car was just perfect."

A pleasant surprise...

Trudi says: "The photos of my two daughters and I together, laughing and giggling, are wonderful. Having our photos taken in and around the grounds of The Grand was fantastic. There were so many amazing backdrops and the images look stunning."

Dressed to impress...

Trudi says: "I loved the whole day from start to finish. Being surrounded by all our wonderful friends and family created a gloriously happy atmosphere. My gorgeous purple wedding gown surprised everyone and I just wish we could do it all over again!"

Sam & Niki

The finer details

Bride: Sam Guilding

Groom: Niki Harwood

Date: 13th May, 2011

Venue: Etchinghill Golf Club, Folkestone

Colour scheme: Dusky pink

Photographer: Pete Dorman (family friend)

Memorable moments...

Sam says: "During the photographs Niki and I went off on a golf buggy and got some shots of the two of us in the distance. For five minutes, it was just us alone together which made it really special. I also loved Niki's speech. He never usually talks about his feelings especially not in public, but it was so heartfelt – it brought tears to the eyes of many of our guests."

A pleasant surprise...

Sam says: "I spent the morning of the wedding at home with my bridesmaids. They completely shocked me when they presented me with a scrapbook over breakfast. It was filled with notes my family and friends had written at my hen parties. I had no idea they had done it and it was so lovely to read the advice and best wishes from them all."

Happy families...

Sam says: "We had a small wedding with just our closest friends and family present. After our roast dinner, it was time to celebrate. It was great to see both of our grandmas up dancing and lots of people who had only met on the day getting on like old friends. We finished the evening by lighting lanterns outside."
